

Board Member Profile

Dan Karp

Dan Karp is the owner of Daniel's Dairy, the ice cream shoppe located at 60 Bank Street in the center of The District. A resident of New London, he graduated from the University of Arizona with a business degree in Accounting and Marketing. Dan has been a volunteer on several committees at Main Street for the past six years and also is currently on the New London Parking Commission. Having been in business for the past 30 years producing, managing, and promoting large major events and festivals, he has worked closely with many non-profit organizations.