

Board Member Profile Renee Fournier

Renee Fournier graduated from the University of Connecticut with a BA degree in Communications. After serving as Marketing Assistant at The Garde for several years, Renee accepted the position of Director of Public Relations at Mitchell College and has been in that role for the past 13 years. She is responsible for internal and external communications and design and production of all advertising and marketing materials, as well as the College's website and social media. Renee has served as co-chair of Fish Tales, Tugs & Sails, the popular children's waterfront event, since its inception. She enjoys living in New London, "the cultural hub of southeastern Connecticut".
